

BY LIGHT OF HIDDEN CANDLES

NARRATED BY
LORI FELIPE-BARKIN

WRITTEN BY
DANIELLA LEVY

PRAISE FOR THE PAPERBACK:

“Engaging characters, a 500-year-old family mystery, and romance—what more could a reader want? I had a hard time putting it down!”

—MAGGIE ANTON,
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR OF THE RASHI'S DAUGHTERS TRILOGY

PRAISE FOR THE AUDIOBOOK:

“Lori Felipe-Barkin’s narration . . . is excellent. The present-day characters of Manuel (Spanish) and Alma (American), told in first person, and 15th-century Miriam (Jewish), told in third person, have distinct accents and tones and Felipe-Barkin easily switches between them. She captures well the emotions of the characters and the many humorous parts of the story. This made for a lively and credible listening experience.”

—READERS' FAVORITE, 5 STARS, BRENDA DANIELS

In a mud hut in the Jewish Quarter of 16th-century Fez, a dying woman hands her granddaughter a heavy gold ring—and an even heavier secret. Five hundred years later, Alma Ben-Ami journeys to Madrid to fulfill her ancestor’s dying wish.
